MSI Unveil Its New Lineup at COMPUTEX 2022 Online

COMPUTEX DigitalGo+ CYBERWORLD virtual show

The best is yet to come: MSIology: Ahead of the Curve new laptops launch

[Taipei, Taiwan] COMPUTEX 2022 is set to kick off starting from May 24. In addition to the physical show, the hosts simultaneously hold 2 online exhibitions: COMPUTEX DigitalGo and COMPUTEX CYBERWORLD. Exhibitors and visitors are invited to participate both online and offline. This year, Taiwan's largest tech expo will revolve around six core themes: Accelerating Intelligence, Connected X-Experience, Digital Resilience, Innovative Computing, Sustainability, and Innovations & Startups.

The world-leading brand in gaming, content creation, and business & productivity, MSI, is ready to flex its muscles at the tech event. "We are proud to announce Titan GT77, the double winner of COMPUTEX 2022 Best Choice Golden Award and red dot 2022, along with other award-winning products that manifest MSI's continuous innovation and dominance in gaming, content creation, and business & productivity lineups on a global scale," says Sam Chern, MSI Marketing Vice President.

After the star-studded tech bonanza, MSI will launch a virtual event: MSIology: Ahead of the Curve, showcasing the latest 12th Gen Intel® HX CPU Gaming and Creator laptops on June 7 at 01:00 A.M. Taipei Time. Made for gamers and creators, the new series presents uncompromising performance and more. Stay tuned!

Here are eye-catching products MSI has to offer:

Titan GT77 gaming laptop

Winner of 2022 COMPUTEX Best Choice Golden Award and red dot, the flagship Titan GT77 features a perfect gaming desktop replacement that truly lives up to the name. The triumphant return of Titan GT77 unleashes the next level of performance, cooling as well as stunning features.
